

Introductory Skype Conversation with Your Missionary

Here are some questions you might ask your global workers if you are new to your leadership role and want to get a better understanding of their life and work.

1. Please describe your job and your team (if you are part of a team).
2. What are your top two or three goals for this year? What are you asking God to do?
3. What is the most exciting thing that happened recently?
4. What is the biggest hurdle or problem you are facing that we should be praying about?
5. How is your family? How could we best show our love for all of you?
6. How could our church better serve alongside you in your ministry?
7. What would you recommend our missions team do to be better informed about your ministry, people, or country?
8. When is your next home assignment? Will you be able to visit us then? How could we make your visit most effective?
9. Do you have other key prayer requests you haven't mentioned previously in this conversation?

 Remember to also share with your missionary several prayer requests for your church, your missions leadership team, and yourself.
