

“Best Books” for Your Team to Read and Discuss Together

Western Christians in Global Missions / Borthwick. Voted by Catalyst the very best book to help your leadership team understand our global context and develop a vision for the Great Commission in today's world.

Missions / Johnson. A brief overview of the responsibilities of church missions leaders.

Mapping Church Missions / Hoover. An introduction to seven balances that churches need to discover as they do missions today.

Well Sent / Beirn. An explanation of what it means for a church to take seriously their responsibility in sending out missionaries.

Radical Together / Platt. A powerful challenge for churches to reshape their priorities according to God's purposes.

There are many others, but these will give a missions team a solid foundation to build on.
